TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Special Agents.

I tried many remedies without relief, but finally Hamlins Wizard Oil made a perfect cure, and he can now walk and run. We thought we should have to amputate both his legs, and feel that Hamlins Wizard Oil saved his life." Price 50c and $1.00.

Assaulted by Negroes.

The fourteen-year-old daughter of Carl Zestra, at Lodore, Amelia county, was criminally assaulted December 23, by a negro identified by his victim as Jesse Gilliam, seventeen years old, who escaped and is still at large. The relatives of the young woman up to this time have succeeded in suppressing the facts, believing that the fugitive would be overtaken and brought to justice. The board of supervisors of Amelia county has offered a reward of $100 for the capture of Gilliam, but the negro up to this time has eluded pursuit. Miss Zestra was waylaid in a secluded spot about a mile from her home by a negro, who, she declares, was Gilliam. She knew him well, having seen him a hundred times at work on an adjoining farm. The girl fought the negro desperately and twice regained her feet after she had been thrown to the ground, but was finally rendered unconscious by a blow. Bruises on her hands, arms, and neck bear out the story she relates of her fight with her assailant. She arrived at her home several hours later more dead than alive, and is still under the treatment of physicians. Governor Montegue has been notified of the crime and the escape of the negro, and will offer an additional reward of $100 for his capture.

Miss Annie Booze, teacher of a county school near Milford, Sussex county, Del., was attacked by a negro on Monday morning while on her way to school. He first asked for alms, then put his hand over her mouth, and threw her to the ground. She managed to tell her assailant that three white men were watching him and gave him her schoolhouse keys, telling him that she had money there, which he might have. The negro then started for the school, when Miss Booze sprang to her feet and ran screaming for help. Three men heard her, and ran after the negro, who had entered the schoolhouse. He saw them coming and managed to escape to the woods. A telephone message from Dover last night says the negro who attacked Miss Booze had been captured at 9 o'clock and reached Milford half an hour later. Threats to lynch him were made, and Sheriff Baker at Dover was sent for. Officers of the National Guard are in the armory at Wilmington, prepared to start for Milford if a call is made. The enlisted men are not there, but are under orders to report.

Wind and Rain Storm.

While the wind and rain storm which swept over Ohio Monday night was at its height at Lima, Mrs. John Fitzgerald, wife of a wealthy North Side citizen, was overcome with fright and died before medical aid could be summoned. Physicians state that she was frightened to death. The Main Street Presbyterian Church was struck by lightning and gutted by flames. The city was in darkness throughout the night, owing to the electric wires being carried down.

Dispatches received in Cincinnati yesterday from various points in Ohio and Kentucky tell of great damage by a severe wind, rain and hail storm Monday night. During the height of the storm the wind reached a velocity of from forty to sixty miles an hour. The telegraph and telephone companies suffered severely by wires being blown down in all directions. At Lancaster, Ohio, several buildings were wrecked, and considerable damage is reported throughout the country. The roofs of several dwellings at Springfield and Hamilton, Ohio, were blown off during the storm. At Eaton, Ohio, a schoolhouse was razed, and many dwellings, barns and small buildings were demolished. Miss Bertha Hart and twenty-five pupils were in the school building when it collapsed but aside from a few minor bruises, all escaped injury.

Cruel Treatment of Boy.

Enticed by an offer to join a baseball team and captured and held prisoner for five or six hours by a gang of four white and eight negro boys was the experience of Owen Fuqua, eleven years old, son of C. B. Fuqua, manager of the Commercial Printing Company, of Lynchburg, and Tom Mays, thirteen years, of Amherst county, who lives in the city with his grandmother. The lads were going to school and they were taken by force to a vacant stable on the outskirts of the city, where they were tied with ropes and badly mistreated in true dime-novel fashion. The gang danced about their captives, flourishing revolvers and sticks, declaring they were getting even for past wrongs. When the captives called for help, they were told to stop under threat of death. Shortly after 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon the major portion of the gang left for dinner, leaving a guard over the boys. The guard took pity on the little fellows and released them. The police are investigating the case.

Mr. Lamb's Speech.

Capt. Lamb spoke in the House yesterday in support of the bill to reduce the tariff on Philippine products. Incidentally, Captain Lamb made a reply to the assertion of Representative Adams, of Wisconsin, who said he discovered when in Richmond to address the convention of commissioners of agriculture last summer that three out of four of the southern democrats he met were glad Roosevelt had been elected and the republican tariff policy continued. After showing that Mr. Roosevelt had received but between five and six hundred votes in Richmond, Captain Lamb created much laughter and applause by declaring: "The gentleman should not take too seriously the declarations of southern men who are entertaining him." A word picture of the prosperity of the south was made by Mr. Lamb who will vote first for the minority substitute and on its defeat, for the majority bill. The tariff, he predicts, will cause the downfall of the republican party in the next presidential campaign.

Bent Her Double.

"I knew no one for four weeks when I was was sick with typhoid and kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Annie Hunter, of Pittsburg, Pa., "and when I got better, although I had one of the best doctors I could get, I was bent double, and had to rest my hands on my knees when I walked. From this terrible affliction I was re cued by Electric Bitters, which restored my health and strength, and now I can walk as straight as ever. They are simply wonderful." Guaranteed to cure, stomach, liver and kidney disorders; at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; price 50.

Stomach Troubles and Constipation.

"Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are the best thing for stomach troubles and constipation I have ever sold," says J. R. Cullman, a druggist of Potterville, Mich. They are easy to take and always gives satisfaction. I tell my customers to try them and if not satisfactory to come back and get their money, but have never had a complaint." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Perfection can only be attained in the physical by allowing Nature to appropriate and not dissipate her own resources. Cathartics gripe, weaken—dissipate, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers simply expel all putrid matter and bile, thus allowing the liver to assume normal activity. Good for the complexion. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

Successful Season Sale.

The unusually large Christmas business has left us with many broken lots of merchandise, and as it is nearing time for our semi-annual inventory we desire to close out these odd lots and at the same time reduce our stock as much as possible so as to lighten the labor of stock-taking.

To do this we are offering for ten days commencing January 15th some of the greatest bargains that has ever gone over our counters.

These are not damaged or out of season goods, but real reductions, goods that we are sacrificing solely to reduce stock.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JAN. 17, 1906.

ALTHOUGH defeated, as he predicted, Senator Brackett forced his "line-up" in the New York Senate yesterday on his resolution demanding the resignation of Mr. Depew from the U. S. Senate. Senator Brackett was the only one to vote for his resolution. All the other republicans voted against it. The democrats were excused from voting on the ground that they had no part in sending Mr. Depew to Washington and didn't care to mix in the fight. Senator Brackett's speech was the most bitter arraignment yet heard of the relations existing between Senator Depew and the life insurance lobby. Senator Brackett described the junior Senator as "an integral part and parcel of the most colossal scheme of public plunder ever invented by the mind of man," and as "a part of a system of political debauchery wherein the funds of wards were employed in corrupting the franchise, such a system of bribery as the world ever knew." Any Senator present, he said, ought to blush for shame at the representation of his State in the United States Senate by either Depew or Platt. Senator Brackett insisted that no service performed by Senator Depew for the Equitable Life Assurance Society during the twenty years of his $20,000 "retainer" had been other than what he owed as a director of the society. The claim that this enormous sum was paid for legal services excited contempt. Referring to the so-called "yellow dog" funds of insurance companies, he said:

Out of this fund there were paid thousands of dollars in one campaign toward the expenses of one of the political parties, as one says "to save the honor of the nation." The honor of the nation—of which honor these men were so solicitous that they forgot their own. So solicitous of the national honor that they gave away thousands of dollars of the money of poor men, of widows, of orphans, but not a cent of their own. Let us have done with this sham and pretense, of having used the stolen funds for honorable or necessary purposes. It is no answer to the stealing that the money stolen was well spent.

AS ANTICIPATED the Philippine tariff bill was passed by the House yesterday. The vote on the bill was a complete defeat for the "insurgent" forces in the republican ranks. The total number of republican votes against the measure was 59, and with them voted 12 democrats. The "insurgents" had repeatedly declared they could muster more than 70 votes among the republicans alone, and, with the aid of a few of the democrats, could defeat the measure, but when the party whip was cracked most of the weak kneed jumped into line. Mr. Champ Clark proposed cutting off $250 a ton of the refined sugar differential, leaving $2.80. Here was an opportunity, he said, for all those members who had "denounced the sugar trust" to back up their words. "If you vote against this amendment," he continued, "forever and eternally hold your peace about the extortions of the surgar trust." Mr. Williams supported the amendment, whereupon Mr. Payne, addressing himself to his republican collegues, declared: "You may follow him (Mr. Willams), you may follow him to your political graves. There is no law to prevent it." A solid republican vote sustained the ruling of the amendment out of order. Mr. Williams exclaimed: "Having succeeded in reuniting the republican party, which is always the result of any attack on the sugar trust, I will now offer another amendment." But he gave way to others who craved that fruitless honor.

REPORTS come from Richmond that wholesale raids on the State treasury are to be attempted and that fully three-fourths of the one hundred and forty members of the Legislature have bills already prepared for appropriations for this, that and the other scheme. The cry for money, it is said, is contained in 80 per cent. of the bills introduced so far, and up to this juncture the voice of the economist has been silent. This is to be regretted and it is hoped that the economist's voice will be heard soon and that in no uncertain sound. The spirit of paternalism is abroad in the land and is growing, but surely there are some broad minded and patriotic men in the Legislature who will oppose and check this spirit in Virginia. The great trouble with many of the legislators is the idea that unless they get something out of the public treasury for their constituents they are not doing their duty by them, and will not be re-elected. These are small and dangerous men, unfit to represent any intelligent constituency, and should be retired from public life, for it too often happens that in their boasted efforts to benefit their districts they have their own interests most at heart. Should the time ever come when all the legislators are for the State and not for themselves, a new era of prosperity and tranquility will dawn in Virginia.

From Washington.

Washington, Jan. 17.

Yesterday's vote on the Philippine tariff bill showed that the republican insurgents, if they but will, can, by a combination with the democrats, control the destinies of the House. They didn't do it in the matter of the Philippine tarift however. Whenever there was a proposition before the House, opposing the plans of the House organization, which the democrats would support the insurgeants were divided. When the insurgents were united, the democrats couldn't agree. The democrats favored a reduction of the differential on refined sugar; the insurgents couldn't rally under that flag. The insurgents—57 of them—voted against the bill; of the democrats but 47 stood with them. The strength of the insurgent element will, it is said, be held together when the real test comes, the fight against the rule which will accompany the statehood bill, preventing the consideration of any amendment to this measure. If the 57 hold together on this proposition, they will have solid democratic support and the fight against the admission of Arizona and New Mexico will be won.

Perry Belmont's movement for the elimination of evils attendant to the use of large sums of money in political elections was given a great impetus at a meeting of supporters, coming from all parties and several labor organizations, at the New Willard today. Upon motion of ex-Senator W. E. Chandler, of New Hampshire, a permanent National Publicity Bill Organization was effected with Mr. Belmont at its head. This organization will press for the passage of an act of Congress providing for publicity in receipts and expenditures of the national committees of all political parties and the organization of local societies for the elimination of the evils. Mr. Swanson, of Virginia, was present at the meeting.

The annual ball of the Southern Relief Society of Washington was given at the New Willard last night, and was the most brilliant success. The entire southern colony at the national capital attended. Many of the most prominent people of Washington, who are not of southern lineage, were also present. Miss Nannie Heth, daughter of the late General Harry Heth, acting as the head of the reception committee, was assisted by about fifty ladies and gentlemen, who helped the dancers and others to know each other.

The National Board of Trade, in convention here today, went on record against the President's railroad rate policy. A compromise resolution was adopted recommending that whenever a U. S. Court of competent jurisdiction shall have determined that an existing rate is excessive, the Interstate Commerce Commission, or some other authority, shall be given power to compel the substitution of a reasonable maximum rate, such rate to go into effect within a reasonable time, and to remain in force for a period, not longer than one year, the rate fixed to be subject to revision in the proper federal court. Resolutions were adopted urging reciprocal concessions by means of a dual tariff, an investigation by Congress into the advisibility of establishing a parcel post system, and against federal control of insurance. The resolution on insurance was brought in by a minority of the committee on that subject.

Miss Rixey, daughter of Representative Rixey, received yesterday afternoon in honor of her guest, Miss Dibrell. The pretty parlors of the Rixey home on Farragut Square were thronged for several hours with ladies and gentlemen representing the official and professional circles.

Ex-Senator Mason, of Illinois, who called at the White House this morning to see the President upon a personal matter, is of the opinion that all attempts to secure rate regulation legislation that will regulate during the present session will prove fruitless.

Through the courtesy of Mr. McBee, editor of the Churchman, of New York, President Roosevelt this evening at 3:30 o'clock held an informal reception in honor of the faculty and students of the Episcopal Theological Seminary, near Alexandria.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, Jan. 17.

SENATE.

When the Senate met today it agreed to a resolution presented by Mr. Culberson, directing the Secretary of War to inform the Senate whether any member of the Philippine commission, or officer of the United States army, or navy, owns any land, in the Philippines, and if so, its location relative to the routeof proposed railways.

Mr. Tillman, shortly after the opening assailed the official conduct of the President is such a show of personal denunciation as the Senate has not heard for years.

The assault was based upon a resolution which the Senator had recently introduced calling upon the President to inform the Senate whether when President Morales left Santo Domingo he took his government with him. He declared that not for ten years had there been anything in the island but a military dictatorship. He quoted an extract from a speech of Mr. Lodge, whom he has repeatedly charged with being the mouth piece of the President. He declared that the President's policy toward the South American republics was that of a big policeman with a bondholders claim, who announced to those governments: "We're your big brother; you're not behaving; settle this claim or we'll whip you, and make you pay it." He said the Monroe doctrine was being wrenched and stretched beyond all decency.

He also denounced what he characterized as the executive's encroachment upon the rights of the press. He presented specific instances of news suppression and ejection from the White House of newspaper correspondents.

Mr. Lodge said he would reply to Senator Tillman at another time.

HOUSE.

Private pension bills were considered by the House today to the number of 188. Of these 42 were for increases for blind persons, and 68 for those who are totally helpless, through paralysis. One bill gives an increase of $12 a month over the present pension, of the same amount, to Ann Betts, of South Orange, N. J., who is a widow of a soldier of the war of 1812, and has reached the great age of 102 years.

While standing within the pulpit of the First Baptist Church, in Charlottesville yesterday, and delivering a lecture on missionary work among the negroes, Mrs. Jennie Hawes, wife of Dr. W. A. Hawes, a prominent physician, who recently removed to that city from New York, was stricken dumb, and, while a little better, is still unable to utter a word, being partially paralyzed on one side. Mrs. Hawes is a sister of Mrs. Broadus, wife of the late Rev. John A. Broadus.

News of the Day.

The demurrers in the case of Gaynor and Greene were overruled in the United States Court, at Atlanta, yesterday and a jury was drawn to try the case.

There was an unexpected flare-up in the Senate yesterday over the railroad regulation question caused by Mr. Fulton, of Oregon, offering an amendment to the Dolliver bill, which is opposed to the administration's measure. Participating in the debate were Messrs. Fulton, Spooner, Bailey, Foraker, Nelson, Clay, McCumber, and Daniel. Mr. Scott also spoke for the ship subsidy bill.

Mrs. Anita DeB. McMurrow, also known as the "Countess De Battencourt," 75 years old, once famous because of her claim to ownership of vast estates in Spain and Cuba valued at $82,000,000, died at her home in Philadelphia yesterday under circumstances that warranted the coroner in making an investigation. Her son, John, has been detained by the police pending the outcome of the coroner's inquiry.

A conciliatory spirit pervades the opening of the conference of the world powers at Algeciras. The President, the Duke of Almodovar, in an address advocated the open door and the necessity for the independence of Morocco. The French and German delegates seconded it. The American delegates stand for the open door; advantages for American commerce and equality of trade rights, protection for life and property; removal of discrimination against the Jews; prevention of private monopoly of the public services and a stand for the square deal, not only for Morocco but for all the interested powers.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Roanoke Fair association, held Monday night, the sale of associations's fair grounds, in the southern section of the city, to the Tidewater Railway Company, was ratified. The purchase was $28,000. The association paid $8,000 for the grounds three years ago.

The death of Mrs. Ada Moore, 22 years old, at the home of her mother, Mrs. John Crown, in Richmond, yesterday, makes a remarkable coincidence. Three daughters, Ada, Beulah and Maude Crown, the difference in whose ages was exactly one year, have all died within three years. Each of the young women was 22 at the time of her death. Mrs. Moore was a bride of just four weeks.

The stockholders of the Jamestown Exposition held their third annual meeting in Norfolk yesterday and elected the directors for the ensuing year. The report of the chairman of the board of governors for the work of the past year was read, and the auditor submitted a financial report that was gratifying. The directors chosen included Hon. Henry St. George Tucker, of Lexington, and Park Agnew, of Alexandria.

Messrs. Davis & Davis, Washington patent attorneys, report the grant this week, to citizens of this State, of the following patents: Lindsay Gaskins, of Hamilton, automatic bell signal for railway track crossings; Jordan W. Grant, of Portsmouth, pop safety valve; John Hermann and C. Schwaner, of Charlottesville, wire stretcher; Thomas J. King, of Richmond, combined weeder and harrow; Isaac J. Charles Leake, aged twenty-one years, brother of a Chesapeake and Ohio train dispatcher, made an unsuccessful attempt Monday evening to commit suicide by leaping from eastbound Chesapeake and Ohio Train No. 16. The unfortunate man was taken to Charlottesville Monday night and placed in the hospital. Leake jumped from the train while it was in full motion, and was found by the conductor of the westbound train in a field near the track. One leg was injured and it is feared that internal injuries were sustained. Leake is said to have told the train crew that it was his fault; that he was trying to ride on the blind baggage and wanted to end his life when he jumped. A trainman said Leake told him, when first picked up, that he wanted to kill himself.

THE LEGISLATURE.

The legislature undertook yesterday to name judges of the Supreme Court of Appeals. The roll had been called, but the result had not been announced when it was found that there was a conflict with the constitution. The law is that the judges have to go into office the February following their election. The schedule of the constitution says they shall go into office February 1, 1907. Before the result could be announced the error was discovervd, and the matter was passed by till after February 1. If the election had taken place yesterday the judges would have lost one year of the term, for which they were originally elected.

SENATE.

Senator Thomas has offered a resolution calling for an investigation of a discrepancy of one hundred and forty-eight millions betweeu the value of the railroads of the State and the assessment placed by the State Corporation Commission.

Mr. Sims introduced a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution of Virginia. The resolution proposes to amend sections 20, 21 and 22 of Article II. of the constitution by striking out the requirement of a prepayment of poll taxes as a prerequisite to qualification to register and vote.

Senator Thomas, of Lynchburg, arose to a question of personal privilege, saying that his bill, offered a few days ago, making an appropriation of $500,000 to schools had been tampered with and changed different from the original appearing in the printed bill. He asked an investigation. The original copy of the bill showed that someone had added in pencil at the bottom: "This bill shall be in force from its passage." The matter was referred to the committee on bills and printing for investigation.

Among the bills introduced were: To provide for the employment of prisoners confined in the jails of the counties and towns of the State upon the public roads.

The relation to salaries, mileage and other allowances.

To amend an act to make husband and wife competent witnesses for or against each other in certain civil and criminal cases.

HOUSE.

A flood of bills was introduced in the House, among them the following:

To amend the code so as to authorize receivers of the estates of married women who are minors to execute bonds before the clerks of courts.

To provide for the appointment of guardians and curators by courts and clerks thereof.

Perscribing time within which erroneous assessment of lands can be corrected.

To protect landlords against removal of crops by tenants until rents and advances are satisfied, and to provide a penalty therefor.

To exempt Confederate soldiers from the payment of capitation taxes.

To prohibit the selling or furnishing or of having in one's possession for the purpose of selling or furnishing black jacks, brass or metal knucks and like weapons, and prescribing penalties therefore.

To amend code to prohibit the loading and running of freight cars and freight trains on Sunday and running locomotives without trains, and to provide penalties for violating the law.

To establish "Old Home Week" in Virginia, to authorize its observance by cities and towns and empower the cities and towns to appropriate money for the observance of the same. The date specified is the calender week beginning with the last Sunday in July in each year.

To reduce the Ninth and Sixteenth judicial circuits of Virginia by taking from the Ninth circuit the county of Rappahannock and to create a new judicial circuit composed of Rappahannock, Fauquier and Loudoun, to be known as the Twenty-fifth circuit.

To provide for the redemption of unused tickets, issued or sold by public service corporations.

To prevent the evil of minors under sixteen years of age using tobacco and having certain deadly weapons.

Senator Patteson has prepared an amendment to the constitution, which provides for separation of the taxes paid for public schools by negroes and whites, and the payment of such taxes, for the support of public schools in proportion to the payments made by whites and blacks. He says this will give all white schools a full term of nine months, and the negro schools from two to four months with an increase of 50 per cent. in the pay of white teachers without an increase of taxation.

A bill is to be offered in the Senate, probably by Senator St. Clair, redistricting the western portion of the State. The bill provides that Charlotte county shall be included in the Fourth district; Halifax in the Fifth; Bland, Giles, Pulaski, Wythe, Alleghen), Bath, Bristol, Botetourt and Craig in the Sixth. Lynchburg and Campbell county are to go to the Tenth district

An effort will be made at this session of the Legislature to procure a colony for the State's epileptics, who are now treated with the insane in the various Virginia institutions.

Preparing for Trouble.

Glasgow, Scotland, Jan. 17.—The correspondent of the Herald at St. Petersburg wires that a state of siege will be declared in the city on Sunday in anticipation of trouble then and on Monday, the anniversary of "Red Sunday," when so many workmen were shot down in the streets. The municipality has organized an ambulance corps in the expectation that a revolutionary outbreak will occur at that time.

The arrest of all the members of the council of workmen on Monday night has greatly depressed the revolutionists. All hope of organizing another revolt has now been abandoned, and terrorism is the only resource of the revolutionaries.

According to the Slovo, the attitude of the soldiers of the Manchurian army is constantly becoming more threatening and the gravest consequences are feared as the result of the disposition of the troops to resist the authority of their officers. The foreign office is informed that the activity of the Chinese in Mongolia is endangering Russian influence there. It has been decided to create a Russian consulate in Mongolia and to station troops along the frontier as a mean of quieting the Chinese and re-establishing the influence of the Czar's government.

Cadets Dismissed.

Annapolis, Md., Jan. 17.—The Navy Department has approved of the sentence of the court martial in the cases of Midshipmen Foster of Indiana, and Marzoni of Florida, who were recently tried and convicted by the general court martial on charges of hazing fourth classmen, and today both of them were dismissed from the Naval Academy and the naval service. They will leave the institution late this afternoon.

The official record in the case of Cadet Coffin, of Nevada, who was convicted of hazing was also received this morning and read before the brigade. He too will no longer be a midshipman after this afternoon.

The department has not yet acted on the result of the second trial of Cadet Decatur, a "star" member of the graduating class. It is estimated officially, however, that Decatur has been convicted.

Mr. Nixon's Return.

New York, Jan. 17.—Lewis Nixon, the ship builder of Elizabeth, N. J., who was sent for by the Czar to construct vessels for the Russian navy, was a passenger on the North German Lloyd steamer Kaiser Wilhelm II., which arrived here today from Bremen. Mr. Nixon came direct from St. Petersburg. In an interview he said that he had constructed ten torpedo boats on the Black sea for the Russian government, which completed his contract. When asked about future contracts Mr. Nixon said there was nothing in view at present and no more vessels to be constructed until affairs were more settled in the empire. Mr. Nixon said that he had been in St. Petersburg during the past four months, and said the revolution in that city did not afford as much excitement as a general election in New York city.

DEATH OF MARSHALL FIELD.

Marshall Field died in New York just at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Marshall Field was taken suddenly ill on Monday, January 9, while on his way to New York on board the Chicago limited of the Pennsylvania Railroad. A day or two later Mr. Field was taken down with pneumonia. Dr. Frank Billings, the family physician, was summoned from Chicago. Since that time consultations had been held over the patient every three or four hours and bulletins issued to the press. During Sunday night Mr. Field appeared to be sinking rapidly, and Monday morning the physicians announced that all hope for his recovery had been abandoned.

The body will be taken to Chicago on a special train over the New York Central this morning. The train will arrive in Chicago tomorrow morning.

The funeral in Chicago will occur either at the Field residence, 1900 Perry avenue, or at the First Presbyterian Church. Rev. Dr. Morrison, of that church, will officiate. The date and details had not been decided last night. At Mr. Field's death his establishments in Chicago, Paris and Manchester were telegraphed to close at once. The same sign of respect, it is said, will be observed on the day of the funeral.

Marshall Field was born on a farm near Conway, Mass., August 18, 1835, and he started to work in a country store at the age of 17. He arrived in Chicago in January, 1856, and worked for Colley, Wadsworth & Co. He was admitted to partnership in 1860 and the firm of Field, Palmer & Leiter was organized in 1865. Potter Palmer withdrew from the firm in 1867. The fire of 1871 wiped out the Field stores, entailing a loss of $3,500,000. The stores were at once re-established. Mr. Leiter withdrew from the firm in 1881. The firm's sales in 1891 were $35,000,000; in 1905, $.20,000,000. The fortune of the deceased is placed at $100,000,000. He married his second wife, who was Mrs. Della Spencer Caton, of Chicago, September 5, 1905.

Charters are all Right.

Anent the much-talked-of decision of the Supreme Court of Virginia in the "Madison Heights case," which caused a considerable sensation and much uneasiness among those towns of the State existing under charters granted by the legislature since the new constitution went into effect, the Supreme Court has set at rest the contention made by many lawyers and spread abroad by several newspapers, that the effect of the decision was to declare that the legislature no longer has the right to charter cities and towns, and that all charters and amendments to charters granted by it since the new constitution has been in force are invalid, by inserting in its opinion the following paragraph:

"Of course the legislature can, as formerly, grant charters creating cities and towns, but when such charters are granted the city or town so chartered must be organized and governed in accordance with the general laws, otherwise it would be obnoxious to the constitutional provision forbidding special legislation."

In an exclusive article The News-Leader published shortly after the decision was rendered a specially prepared opinion, giving to the decision the construction which the court now by its amendment announces.—[Richmond-News-Leader.

The Philippine Tariff Bill.

The Philippine tariff bill was passed by the House yesterday evening substantially as it came from the ways and means committee. The vote was 258 to 71. Rice was made subject to the same tariff as sugar and tobacco—25 per cent. of the Dingley rates—and one or two changes were made in the language. The bill admits goods the growth or product of the Philippine Islands into the United States free of duty, except sugar, tobacco and rice, on which a tariff of 25 per cent. of the Dingley rates is levied. It provides that after April 11, 1909, there shall be absolute free trade each way between the United States and the Philippines. It also exempts Philippine goods coming to the United States from the export tax of those islands. Merchandise from either country is subjected to the internal revenue tax of the country in which such merchandise is withdrawn for consumption.

The Smoke Law.

Steps were taken in Washington yesterday to settle the question of the constitutionality of the District smoke law. A business man convicted in the Police Court for violating this law, applied for a writ of habeas corpus on the ground that the law was not in accordance with the constitution, and announced his intention of taking the matter to the Supreme Court of the United States as soon as possible. Other similar attempts have been made, but not on the same basis.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflammed portion of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

COURT OF APPEALS.

Argument was submitted in the case of the Standard Oil Company vs. the City of Fredericksburg. The suit involves an alleged violation of that provision of the federal constitution forbidding the enforcement of discriminating laws.

Seldon, subtrustee, vs. Brooke, collector, argued and submitted.

Seldon's executor vs. Kennedy; argued and submitted.

Schwalm vs. Beardsley; passed to March term.

Shortage in Kansas Treasury.

A total shortage in the Kansas State treasury of about $78,000 is shown by the report of Accountant Morris in the treasury examination just closed. The larger part of the shortage appears in the accounts of the office during the Frank Grimes administration. Of the total of $78,000, $60,000 is due to missing coupons from bonds owned by the State school fund and $18,000 is due to loss of interest on warrants issued by the Territory of Oklahoma to the State of Kansas. Former State Treasurer Grimes issued a statement last night. He absolutely denies any responsibility for the shortage in Oklahoma warrant interest, and says he is able to account satisfactorily for all the bond coupon shortages except $7,125. Mr. Grimes states that he is willing to make good any shortages he is responsible for. In his statement Mr. Grimes puts the responsibility for a number of serious discrepancies on C. R. Richey, his chief clerk. Aside from the shortage shown the Morris report makes sensational disclosures, concerning the erasure of the "State property" stamp from the backs of coupons and the mutilation of records in the office of the State treasurer and State auditor.

Judges Named.

A caucus was held in Richmond last night for the purpose of naming corporation judges to be elected by the General Assembly. The following judges and their terms were decided upon: Barun, Newport News, two years; Woods, Roanoke, two years; Hanckel, Norfolk, four years; Bain, Portsmouth, four years; Barley, Alexandria, six years; Goolrick, Fredericksburg, eight years; Christian, Lynchburg, eight years; Miller, Petersburg, eight years. A resolution was offered by Senator Thomas, of Lynchburg, that a joint caucus of the two houses be held on Thursday for the purpose of considering a larger appropriation for the maintenance of the primary schools of the State. There was no objection to the resolution, but the Senate decided as a substitute to adjourn subject to the call of the chairman.

An Appeal to Court.

The Supreme Court of the District of Columbia has been asked to require Jacob M. Heisley to render an accounting as treasurer of Local Union, No. 190, United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America. Union No. 190 was consolidated October 21 last with several other similar unions, the consolidated organization assuming the name, "Local Union No 132." William G. Phillips, Joseph K. Potter and John F. P. Magee, trustees of Union No. 132, the complainants in the case filed yesterday, assert that Mr. Heisley declines to turn over to the new union $1,877.04, said to have been collected by him as treasurer of No. 190. In addition to an accounting, complainants seek a decree that the money and effects that belonged to Union No. 190 are now the property of Union No. 132.

The Alexandria Gazette, one of the most reliable and best dailies published in this State, has completed its 106th year as a newspaper. May it live many years, and enjoy prosperity.—[Leesburg Mirror.

Memorial Bridge Bill Passed.

Senator Daniel yesterday afternoon called up the memorial bridge bill, which was favorably reported from the committee on the District of Columbia about a month ago, and asked that the Senate take action on it. Senator McCumber remarked that he could not see why this bill should be passed when the country is now laboring under a deficit of $20,000,000, and such matters as houses for embassies abroad, public buildings in this country, river and harbor improvements and other important public works have to be laid aside for the present.

Senator Gallinger, made a strong argument for the bill.

Senator Daniel believed that this great project had waited long enough, and he hoped the Senate would repeat its action in the past by putting it on its passage. Without further debate the bill was then passed.

It authorizes the Secretary of War to cause the construction of a bridge from the most convenient point upon or near the old observatory grounds across the Potomac to the most convenient point of the Arlington estate property. The bridge is to be constructed on a plan to be approved by a board composed of the Secretary of War, the Vice President, the Speaker of the House, the chairman of the committees on the District of the Senate and House. The cost is limited to $5,000,000. An appropriation of $500,000 is made by the bill to secure a plan and to commence construction work.

New Steamboats.

The work is progressing quite rapidly on the building of the new steel excursion steamer Jamestown, which the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company is having built at Newport News shipyard for daylight excursions on the river. The boat will be ready to be launched about March 1st and about ninety days later she will be ready for service.

The new ferry steamer, the sister ship of the steamer Woodbury, now on the route between this city and Washington, which is building at the yard of the Harlan & Hollingsworth corporation at Wilmington, Del., will also be ready for launching about March 1, and will be ready for service early in May next. It is stated that the new ferry boat will be named the Callahan, in honor of Mr. John Callahan, the manager of the Norfolk and Washington lines.

Reliance Fire Company.

The annual meeting of the Reliance Fire Company was held last night. After routine business was disposed of with the election of officers was entered into. The following were elected: L. E. Uhler, president; Thomas W. Robinson, 1st vice-president; J. R. N. Curtin, 2nd vice-president; W. H. Bontz, jr., treasurer; F. D. Pollard, secretary; H. Tennesson, assistant secretary; Allen L. Thompson, recorder. Active officers; A. D Grimes, captain; K. W. Ogden, 1st lieutenant; G. K. Prettyman, 2nd lieutenant; M. W. Glasgow, commander of hose. Executive committee; J. S. Douglas, Courtney Acton, C. B. Paff.

On behalf of the company Mr. R. M. Pettey presented the president, Mr. Uhler, with a handsome Morris chair as a token of the high esteem in which he is held.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were on the docket of the Police Court this morning. In the absence of material witnesses they were all continued:

Benjamin Waters, arrested by Officers Knight and Nicholson charged with failing to report junk he had purchased.

Isaac Thornton, colored, arrested by the same officers charged with being a party to the above offense.

Revival.

Special revival services are being conducted at the Methodist Episcopal Church South. The pastor, Rev. J. P. Stump, is being assisted by the various Protestant ministers of the city. The services Monday night were conducted by Rev. Dr. W. F. Fisher, of the Baptist Church. Rev. J. H. S. Ewell, of the Methodist Protestant Church, delivered the sermon last night; Rev. Dr. Hutchinson, presiding elder of the Washington district, will preach tonight; Rev. Edgar Carpenter, of Grace Episcopal Church, will preach Thursday night; and Rev. J. A. Jeffers, of Trinity Church, Friday night. The services will be continued throughout the next week.

Meetings.

The annual meetings of the Abner-Drury Brewing Company and of the Dulin & Martin Company were held in this city yesterday, when the old directors and officers were re-elected.

The annual meeting of the Washington National Building and Loan Association, of Washington, was held in this city today, when the old directors and officers were re-elected.

The stockholders of the W. T. Walker Brick Company met today at Arlington for the purpose of electing directors and officers.

The Old Steamer Columbia.

The old ferry steamer Columbia, which for a number of years was on the ferry route between this city and Washington until she was destroyed by fire in May, 1903, is lying at the 9th street wharf, Washington, while the wreckers are removing the boiler, engine and other machinery from the old boat, leaving only the bare hull, which will be fitted up for a houseboat.

Game Preserves.

An interesting bill was introduced by Mr. James R. Caton, of this city, in the House of Delegates yesterday for the establishment of game preserves, and for the enforcement of the laws against trespass and unlawful hunting and fishing.

The Smoot Will Case.

The morning session of the Corporation Court today in the hearing of the Smoot will contest was consumed in the taking of evidence for the proponents of the will and was principally to bring out the alleged fact that the contestant has for some years been intemperate in her habits.

The first witness was Nannie Jackson, the colored laundress at the Smoot residence, who testified that Mrs. Smoot had told her that she had made her will, but that she was not at all satisfied with it.

She was followed by Rev. Mr. Burch, who admitted, in cross examination by Mr. Brent, that he had said on one occasion that Rev. Mr. Jones was a rascal but he explained that he had said so because of stories told him by Miss Ella Smoot and not because of any personal knowledge. He added that he now believed Mr. Jones to be everything that a christian gentleman and a minister of the gospel should be.

Frank Burch and Smoot Jones, sons of the two clergymen, gave unimportant testimony and Mrs. Burch again took the stand. She testified that her sister, Miss Smoot, had frequently abused the Joneses and was often irresponsible. Mrs. Burch said that she had had but one serious disagreement with her mother, and that was when she had opened a letter addressed to her mother, but she said she had done this at the suggestion of Miss Ella Smoot, who had informed her that Rev. Mr. Jones was getting from their mother money that belonged to them.

Mr. Brent asked Mrs. Burch if she was under the influence of Miss Ella Smoot when she opened her mother's letter and she replied that she must have been.

At the afternoon session Mrs. Warner Moore took the stand and testified that Rev. Mr. Burch upon seeing a check for $1,875, drawn on a brokerage firm in New York, written by Rev. Dr. Jones and signed by Mrs. Frances Smoot, became angry and called Rev. Mr. Jones a rascal. Witness further testified that during two days she was with Mr. Burch at Atlantic City his sole topic of conversation was abuse of the Joneses.

Rev. Mr. Burch again took the stand and admitted that he had called Rev. Mr. Jones a rascal, but denied having abused the Joneses. He reiterated that he had used the word "rascal" in referring to Rev. Mr. Jones after listening to one of Miss Smoot's statements.

After the Gazette's report closed yesterday evening and after several other witnesses for the contestant had been heard, Rev. W. Strother Jones was placed on the stand in rebuttal. He was asked by Col Smith if he was not a descendant of an old and honored family, and in reply gave the names of his mother and father, and also said that he had been a minister of the gospel for thirty years. When questioned about certain statements, made by witnesses for the contestant and asked if they were true, he said, "I repel them with indignation and scorn." When the witness was turned over to Mr. Brent he was asked about certain incidents following the lease of the lumber business to Mr. Field, and admitted that when he "thought Miss Smoot was about to punch" him with the end of an umbrella he had warned her that he would "treat her as a man and would knock her down."

Rev. Mr. Jones stated that Miss Smoot had objected to the lease of the lumber yard and said that since his second marriage she had been most unkind and ungracious toward him. When one of his attorneys called his attention to the fact that Miss Smoot had branded him "a rascal" in court Monday, he said the charge was "most outrageous."

Joe Haskins, colored, who had been a servant at the Smoot home for 35 years, was on the stand for some time, but was a most unwilling witness and but little was gained from him. He admitted that there were family disturbances, but said he believed that such things were common to most households. When asked as to Miss Smoot's habits, he said she was not always temperate, but could not fix any act of intemperance within the period to which the court had limited the investigation, and finally announced that he would rather go to jail than reveal the family secrets that he believed should be sacred to all servants. The attorneys did not insist upon the court taking drastic measures and Haskins was excused. Haskins was placed on the stand by counsel for Rev. William Strother Jones and Rev. Francis M. Burch and their wives, who are the proponents of the will which Miss Ella Rose Smoot, the unmarried sister of the wives of the clergymen, seeks to break, to show that the contestant is of intemperate habits.

The Murder Mystery.

The circumstances in connection with the murder of George Curtin are still a matter of conjecture. The police this morning made another search in a direction which it was thought might lead to positive conclusions. They were, however, disappointed, and resumed other trails.

Harry Meeks and Herbert Foster, the two young men arrested Monday, are still held, it being believed by the authorities that they can throw light on the mystery, but, so far, they have failed to tell anything more than what is already known. In the meantime there are many speculations concerning the fate of Curtin.

Another young man, who, it is alleged, frequents north Lee street, was examined at the station house this morning concerning his whereabouts on the night of December 23. He proved he was at work on that night.

Personal.

The officers of George Mason Council, Royal Arcanum, have paid to Mrs. Lerena Winfield Broughton, of this city, $1,000, the amount of the benefit held in that order by her father, the late Gerald W. Parten, of Raleigh, N. C.

Lee Camp Banquet.

A meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to the R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans was held in the camp hall last night and arrangements perfected for the annual banquet in honor of Gen. Lee's birthday. The members of the camp are busy with the arrangements for the celebration and expect a large attendance. As heretofore stated Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky, and Congressman Champ Clark, of Missouri, will speak on the occasion.

Sweeping the Streets.

The new street sweeper raised a fog on King street this morning. It was operated without the sprinkler, causing clouds of dust to be wafted down the thoroughfare by the northwest wind. It was suggested by many that the street should be cleaned at night. The new sweeper is in every way a success when operated under proper conditions. The cobblestones on several streets have been cleaned satisfactorily and quickly by the device.

D. A. R. Entertainment.

All the arrangements for the entertainment to be given at the Opera House tonight under the auspices of the D. A. R., have been completed and a large and fashionable audience is expected to be present. Most of the reserved seats have already been taken. A detachment of Minute Men from Washington and members of Osceola Tribe of Red Men of this city will take part in the entertainment.

A Victim of Knockout Drops.

Several days ago it was stated in this column that a railroad fireman was found a short distance north of this city in the night time partially dressed and helpless. The affair was shrouded in mystery until recently. It is now said that the man was a victim of knockout drops, and that after having been doped he was robbed and left in the condition in which he was found.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Several pistol shots were heard in the northeastern section of the city last night.

Meriwether Resigns.

Midshipman Minor Meriwether, jr., has handed in his resignation as a midshipmen, but it will not be accepted while the present charges are pending. Even should he be relieved of them, the acceptance is unlikely, as he has served only a month of his term of confinement to the academy grounds, to which he was sentenced on account of his connection with the fight during which Midshipman Branch, of New York city, received fatal injuries However, Meriwether is very much discouraged about being called into account for affairs taking place before his recent trouble with Branch and the subsequent court-martial. He would be perfectly willing to plead guilty to the charge, and at least some of the specifications, except that he wishes the evidence to come out.

He believes that it will be shown that he never had any part in cruel hazing, but that the whole thing was regarded as a joke by all concerned. Still there is no doubt that, under their previous rulings, the court will regard these things as hazing, and Meriwether has little hope of an acquittal.

Challenges by counsel for Meriwether to every member of the hazing court at the Naval Academy were overruled.

Yesterday cadets gave evidence in six cases against him, stating that they did the "sixteenth" and were stood on their heads in his room. The "rabbit dance" was brought before the court.

The Gazette.

The Alexandria Gazette, one of our most valuable exchanges, has entered upon its 107th year. In this day of big newspapers the Gazette is a striking illustration of the fact that bigness is not news. Certainly a man hunting for news, especially news interesting to a Virginian, can get more real satisfaction out of the Gazette than out of any 16 page paper we ever saw.—[Manassas Journal.

Indicted for Blackmailing.

After the examination of many witnesses, the grand jury of the Corporation Court in Charlottesville yesterday afternoon completed its consideration of the cases against F. C. Duncan, Henry S. Michie, and John S. Hawkins, charged with blackmailing and extorting money from the late Robert D. Ballantine, and returned true bills against them jointly and individually.

Fourteen indictments were found against the three men for conspiracy and extortion, and seven against each one individually, making in all a total of thirty-five indictments. It is stated that while all these indictments will not be used, it was the intention of the Commonwealth's Attorney to have them found so that he could exercise later his own option in the matter.

Hawkins and Michie, along with J. Antoni Ambrozelli, who was Monday indicted for assault, will be arranged before Judge Morris today.

It developed in the evidence before the grand jury that, instead of there being only one check of $4,000 given by Ballantine to F. C. Duncan, and placed in the Jefferson National Bank safety deposit box of H. K. Hawthorne, as was brought out at the preliminary trial, there were three checks for this amount. These checks were said to have been dated in January, April, and June of the present year, dated ahead in anticipation of Ballantine's income. In addition to these future checks, aggregating $12,000, there were produced also two checks for $1,000 each, payable to Duncan, and collected by him about the middle of November last, about the time at which the alleged conspiracy is said to have occurred. There was also a check of $100, dated October 5, indorsed to Hawkins by Ballantine. This makes a total of $14,100 involved in the alleged blackmailing case.

Murders and Suicides.

Lester Donawitz, aged twenty-two years, a machinist, of Philadelphia, yesterday shot and fatally wounded his wife, Viola, attempted to kill Mrs. Alice Nicoslemi, proprietress of a boarding house, with whom the couple boarded, and then committed suicide by shooting himself in the head. Jealousy is said to have prompted the crime. Donawitz is a night worker. When he returned home yesterday he found his wife and Mrs. Nicoslemi in the dining-room. He accused his wife of infidelity, and in the quarrel which ensued he shot her in the abdomen. He fired at Mrs. Nicoslemi, but his aim was bad, and the bullet missed its mark. Donawitz then turned the weapon upon himself.

W. P. Brandt, Monday night, at Elk River, Minn., shot and killed his wife and Justin Adams, a neighbor, and then committed suicide by shooting himself through the head. Jealousy is given as the cause of the tragedy.

The Diamond Cure.

The latest news from Paris, is, that they have discovered a diamond cure for consumption. If you fear consumption or pneumonia, it will, however, be best for you to take that great remedy mentioned by W. T. McGee, of Vanleer, Tenn. "I had a cough for fourteen years. Nothing helped me until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which gave instant relief and affected a permanent cure." Unequalled quick cure for Throat and Lung Troubles. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; price 50c and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

A Liquid Cold Cure.

For coughs and colds no remedy is equal to Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar—the Liquid Cold Cure. It is different from all others—better, because it expels all cold from the system by acting as a cathartic on the bowels. Gives strength to weak lungs. Affords immediate relief in Croup, Coughs, Colds, Whooping-Cough, etc. Children love it. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best Made

"In my opinion Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best made for colds," says Mrs. Cora Walker, of Poterville, California. There is no doubt about its being the best. No other will cure a cold so quickly. No other is so sure a preventive of pneumonia. No other is so pleasant and safe to take. These are good reasons why it should be preferred to any other. The fact is that few people are satisfied with any other after having once used this remedy. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Soothing and Comforting.

The soothing and comforting effects of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, when applied to Piles, sores, cuts, boils, etc., subdues pain almost instantly. This Salve draws out the inflammation, reduces swelling and acts as a rubefacient, thus circulating the blood through the diseased parts, permitting or aiding Nature to permanently remove the trouble entirely. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Many sufferers from nasal catarrh say they get splendid results by using an atomizer. For their benefit we prepare Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Except that it is a liquid it is in all respects like the healing, helpful, pain-allaying Cream Balm that the public has been familiar with for years. No cocaine nor other dangerous drug in it. The soothing spray relieves at once and cure is certain. All druggists, 75c., including spraying tube, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren street, New York.

STRONG Again

is what Mrs. Lucy Stovall, of Tilton, Ga., said after taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Hundreds of other weak women are being restored to perfect health by this remedy. YOU may be well if you will take it.

Indigestion causes nearly all the sickness that women have. It deprives the system of nourishment and the delicate organs peculiar to women suffer—weaken, and become diseased.
